DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 1-5, 7-11, 13-17 and 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Borger et al [5,875,706], hereinafter Borger.

Borger discloses in Figs 1-5 (also see Figure below wherein the letters A-B have been added by the examiner), a cover assembly for food processing appliance comprising: a cover for cooperating with a container [housing 5, base 1 and bowl 6], the container cooperating with an operating base [base 1 and mount 3], the cover having an upper side with a predefined ingress area A, the operating base having a rotating tool

Art Unit: 3725

36 with a center of rotation [spindle 8] and a peripheral impact region B and the peripheral impact region being radially distanced from the center of rotation. Also, Brady discloses wherein the ingress area overlies at least a substantial portion of an outermost portion of the peripheral impact region relative to the center of rotation and wherein the ingress area does not overlap the center of rotation [see the Figure below] when the cover operatively connected to the container and the container is operatively connected the operating base. Additionally, Brady discloses the ingress area has a cross-sectional area substantially equal to half that of a lower side of the cover [see the Figure below, the cross section along the line X-X appears to be substantially equal to half that of a lower side of the cover and the cross section along the line Y-Y appears to be equal to half that of a lower side of the cover] and the ingress area is shaped so as to overlay at least a distal end of the impact region [see the Figure below].

Art Unit: 3725

Should Brady be later deemed not to meet claims 1-5, 7-11, 13-17 and 19-20 because Brady does not disclose the accessory for cooperating with the ingress area, it would have been obvious to provide the device of Brady with an accessory in order to push the material down the feed tube.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-5, 7-11, 13-17 and 19-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
